THE FESTIVITIES START FRIDAY!

The sixth biennial NEW YORK EARLY MUSIC CELEBRATION [NYEMC] - "The Low Countries - Flanders and Holland" - will include over two dozen events all over Manhattan, demonstrating the richness of New York as a hub of historically informed performance.

Celebration organizer EARLY MUSIC FOUNDATION has arranged for the participation of such notable foreign guest artists as flutist BARTHOLD KUIJKEN and carillonneur GEERT D'HOLLANDER from Belgium; and the vocal ensemble CAPPELLA PRATENSIS and chamber ensemble CAMERATA TRAJECTINA from the Netherlands.

Among New York-based early music artists participating in NYEMC 2017 are the ensembles EARLY MUSIC NEW YORK, THE SEBASTIANS, HOUSE OF TIME and BROOKLYN BAROQUE; organists DANIEL HYDE (Director of Music at St. Thomas Church), and GWENDOLYN TOTH; and carillonneur JULIE ZHU. Vocal ensembles will include POMERIUM, RENAISSANCE CHORUS NEW YORK, and the RENAISSANCE STREET SINGERS. In addition, AMHERST EARLY MUSIC will host its annual "CityRecorder!" weekend workshop during the festival, as well as other educational components.

The 6th NYEMC is a service project of the EARLY MUSIC FOUNDATION. This project is made possible in part with support from Flanders House New York, the Consulate General of the Kingdom of the Netherlands in New York, the Netherland-America Foundation and the Performing Arts Fund NL.

Presenting partners for "The Low Countries - Flanders and Holland" include Music Before 1800, the Morgan Library & Museum, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, Riverside Church, Saint Thomas Church, and the Morris-Jumel Mansion.

Schedule of Events (26 events to date)
